

Title: A Day in the Life

Page 1:

John was very happy when he woke up in the morning. He felt a sense of joy as he looked outside his window and saw the beautiful city of New York.

Page 2:

Later in the day, John met with his friend Alice at Central Park. They were both excited to catch up after a long time. However, as they were walking, John became sad when he remembered the time they had argued last year.

Page 3:

By the end of the day, John was feeling very tired but content. He was glad that he could spend time with Alice and mend their friendship.